Emily Frances Whitney (1888-?)

Engaged.

BRIGGS-WHITNEY.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elnore Whitney of Boston, now at 471 Park Av., New York, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Emily Frances Whitney, to Capt. Allan Lindsay Briggs of the Twenty-sixth U. S. Infantry. Miss Whitney is the granddaughter of the late Leonard Whitney of Hollingsworth & Whitney. Capt. Briggs is the son of the late Rev. Nathaniel L. Briggs, sometime pastor at St. Mark's, N. Y., and grandson of the late Gen. Abram Duryee, Colonel of the Seventh New York and of the famous Duryee's Zouaves.

MISS EMILY WHITNEY WEDS.

Married to Capt. Allen L. Briggs, U. S. A., at Her Father's Home.

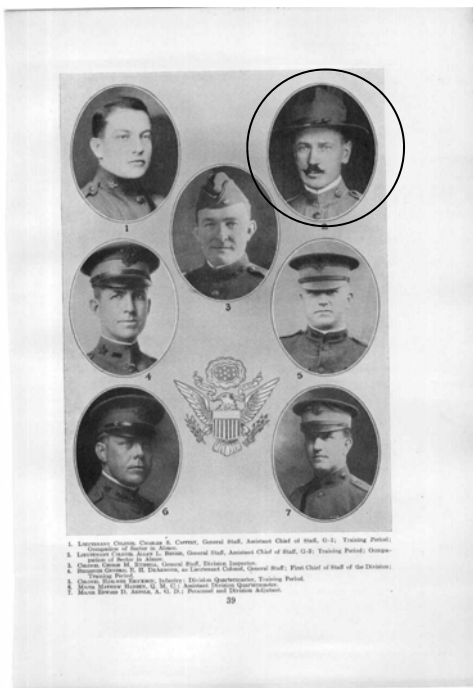

The wedding of Capt. Allen Lindsay Briggs, twenty-sixth Infantry, U. S. A., and Miss Emily Frances Whitney, a daughter of Charles E. Whitney, and formerly of Boston, took place at 5 o'clock yesterday at the home of the bride's father, 471 Park Avenue, the Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks of St. Bartholomew's Church officiating.

The decorations throughout the rooms were greens. Miss Whitney had her sister, Miss Helen Cole Whitney, as maid of honor, the bridesmaids being Miss Gladys Stout of New York and Miss Ravida Ellis of Baltimore, a niece of the bridegroom. The bride's gown was white satin with old rose point lace and a girde of pearls; the bridal veil was tulle, with a cap of old point lace. She carried orange blossoms and bride roses and a point lace handkerchief.

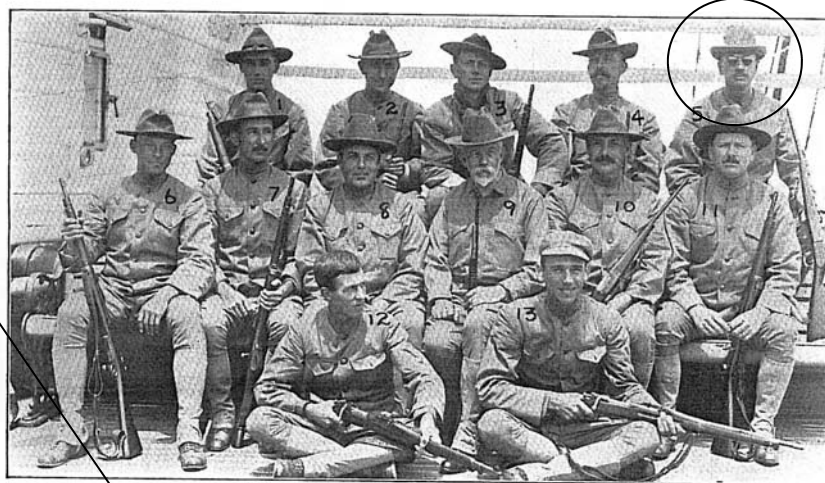

The maid of honor was in cream lace over apricot satin, and carried American Beauty roses.

The best man was Lieut. Consuelo S. Seoane, Third Cavalry, and the ushers were Capt. Charles Wendell Penton, Lieut. John H. Emery, Twenty-ninth Infantry; William G. Brady, Jr., and Howard Major, of New York, Arthur Besse of Springfield, Mass., and Walter Badger, Jr., of Cambridge, Mass.

As the bridegroom's family is in mourning, the wedding was a small, quiet one. Capt. Briggs and Mrs. Briggs are going to Fort Wayne, Mich., where the Twenty-sixth Infantry is stationed.

TREATY BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND AUSTRIA ESTABLISHING FRIENDLY RELATIONS, SIGNED AUGUST 24, 1921

WASHINGTON, November 19, 1921—6 p.m.

365. By the exchange of ratifications November 9 [8], 1921, and by Executive Proclamation November 18 [177], 1921, diplomatic relations between the United States and Austria may be resumed.

You are instructed to request your provisional recognition as Chargé d'Affaires pending arrival letters of credence.

As soon as you have been received, you will advise the Department thereof and request the Foreign Office to recognize the diplomatic secretaries of your staff and, as Military Attaché, Lieutenant Colonel Allen L. Briggs. Also request temporary recognition pending issuance of exequaturs following consular appointments: Carol H. Foster, Consul in charge at Vienna, Robert Heingartner, Consul on detail, and Joseph Burt, Vice Consul.

When you have been recognized by the Government inform consuls and direct them to function and to take over any furniture, archives and other American Government property which may still be in the hands of Spanish Consuls in charge of American interests.

Arrangements are being made with the Spanish Government for the return, upon request, of all United States Government property held by the diplomatic and consular representatives of Spain in Austria.

Inform Consuls.
