

International Law

Session 55

Private international law 2: HAGUE CONFERENCE

Commerce:

Contracts

Torts

Securities

Trusts

Recognition of companies

Juridical assistance:

Judicial and administrative cooperation

Family:

Protection of children

Protection of adults

Relations between former spouses

Wills trusts and estates

Private International Law 2 – HAGUE

Commerce:

Supplementing the UNCITRAL texts, the Hague Conference deals with sales contractual issues that include payments and the transfer of ownership, as well as torts in accidents, security payments, trusts, and the recognition of the legal personality of business organizations:

http://www.hcch.net/index_en.php?act=text.display&tid=10#commerce

Private International Law 2 – HAGUE

Juridical assistance:

The Hague Conference aims at providing judicial and administrative cooperation among members (apostille) and the enforcement of conventions and judgments:

http://www.hcch.net/index_en.php?act=text.display&tid=10#litigation

Private International Law 2 – HAGUE

Family:

The Hague Conference seeks the protection of children in cases of divorce between parents of different nationality as well as regulating the relations between former spouses, the protection of impaired persons, wills trusts and estates:

http://www.hcch.net/index_en.php?act=text.display&tid=10#family